Code of Ethics for Swimming

Teachers and Coaches.

This Code is an extension to the ASA Code of Ethics. Both should be followed.

The Teacher/Coach must

- Put the well-being, health and safety of members above all considerations including developing performance.
- At all times adhere to the ASA Code of Ethics, Rules and Laws.
- At all times adhere to the ASA and club Child Safeguarding Policy and Procedures.
- Consistently display high standards of behaviour and appearance.
- Treat all swimmers / players with respect and dignity, value their worth and treat everyone equally, recognising their needs and abilities within the context of their sport.
- Develop an appropriate working relationship with swimmers / players based on mutual trust and respect.
- Meet the ASA commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion.
- Always place the well-being, health and safety of swimmers / players above all other consideration including developing performance.
- Always ensure that all teaching, coaching and competition programmes are appropriate for the age, ability and experience of the individual swimmer / player.
- Always identify and meet the needs of the individual swimmer / player as well the needs of the team/squad.
- Be fair and equal in team and training squad selection.
- Never exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward. In particular, coaches must not use their position to establish or pursue a sexual or improper relationship with an athlete or someone close to them.
- Encourage and guide swimmers / players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance.
- Continue to seek and maintain their own professional development in all areas in relation to coaching and teaching children.

Suffolk Coastal Torpedoes Water Polo Club

- Treat all information of a personal nature about individual swimmers / players as confidential, except in circumstances where to do so will allow the child to be placed at risk of harm or continue to be at risk of harm.
- Encourage all swimmers players to obey the spirit of the rules and laws both in and out of the pool.
- Co-operate fully with other specialists (e.g. other coaches, officials, sport scientists, doctors, and physiotherapists) in the best interests of the swimmer / player.
- Never encourage or condone swimmers, volunteers, officials or parents to violate the rules of the club or the sport and report any violations appropriately.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

1. The ASA and British Swimming have committed themselves to tackling forms of discrimination and to strive to become inclusive of all those who want to participate in swimming / water polo (as competitors, officials, coaches and administrators) irrespective of their race, gender, disability, age, sexual orientation and faith and ability.

2. This code of conduct includes the Association's commitment to address equality, diversity and inclusion in swimming.

To this end the Association will not tolerate:

- a. Discrimination on the grounds set out in 1 above.
- b. Harassment.
- c. Bullying.
- d. Abusive or insensitive language.
- e. Inappropriate behaviour detrimental to any individuals or groups of individuals.

3. The ASA and British Swimming are governed by UK law and will seek to ensure that its participants are committed to addressing its responsibilities under the sex discrimination Act 1975, Race Relations Act 1976, Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000, Equal Pay Act 1970, Disability Discrimination Act 1995, Human Rights Act 1998, Disability Discrimination Act (Amendment) 2005, Equality Act 2006.

4. Committees, Officials and Volunteers in all aquatic disciplines must address this responsibility to support equality, diversity and inclusion in our sport!
